EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with James Billings on 04-12-2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the specification:

Page 6, line 9, before "radius" insert --1/2"--;

Page 6, line 13, after "continuous" insert --flanged edge--; and

Page 6, line 18, change "lip" to --flanged edge--.

In the claims:

Cancel claim 1; and

Add the following new claim 2;

--Claim 2. (New) In combination, a one piece integrally molded plastic tray, and a mailbox having a front door, the combination comprising:

the tray having a rectangular profiled bottom surrounded by three elevated sides and an open front end for mail insertion and removal, the sides defining a left side, right side, and rear side;

the sides including at the top thereof a continuous flanged edge for rigidity;

Art Unit: 3677

the tray removably located inside the mailbox and sized such that there is clearance between the rear side of the tray and the rear of the mailbox when the mailbox door is closed;

the tray has three equally raised ribs on the bottom and two triangular rear bottom corners for rigidity;

the tray has approximately a 1/2" radius around the inside periphery joining the three sides to the bottom and blending into the triangular corners thereby allowing the tray to be manufactured from a thin sheet of plastic while providing sufficient rigidity;

the front of the tray bottom including a raised lip defining a handle; and a 1/8" thick soft rubber pad adhesively attached to the handle to prevent the users' fingers from slipping from the handle when extending the tray from the mailbox to retrieve the mail.--

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Regarding claim 2, Billings US#2002/0109005 discloses in combination, a one piece integrally molded plastic tray 1, and a mailbox having a front door (abstract), the combination comprising: the tray having a rectangular profiled bottom 2 surrounded by three elevated sides and an open front end for mail insertion and removal, the sides defining a left side 4, right side 3, and rear side 5; the sides including at the top thereof an outwardly extending continuous flanged edge 10 for rigidity; the tray removably located inside the mailbox and sized such that there is clearance between the rear side of the tray and the rear of the mailbox when the mailbox door is closed; the tray has three equally raised ribs 11-13 on the bottom and two triangular rear bottom corners 6,7 for rigidity; the tray has approximately a 1/2" radius around the inside periphery joining the three sides to the bottom and blending into the triangular corners allowing the tray to be manufactured from a thin sheet of plastic while providing sufficient rigidity; and the front of the tray bottom including a raised lip 8 defining a handle.

3. Billings fails to disclose a 1/8" thick soft rubber pad adhesively attached to the handle to prevent the users' fingers from slipping from the handle when extending the tray from the mailbox to retrieve the mail. Although applying rubber to a handle to facilitate gripping is known as evidenced by Landsberger (US#4389777) (see Fig. 4 and rubber sleeve 60), Billings teaches away from including a rubber pad attached to the handle as the handle includes raised ribs 9.1-9.6 thereon. Therefore, it would not have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at to modify Billings in view of the teachings of Landsberger to include a 1/8" thick soft rubber pad adhesively attached to the handle to prevent the users' fingers from slipping from the handle when extending the tray from the mailbox to retrieve the mail.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
